Presents . . .

SUFFOLK HIGH SCHOOL
SUFFOLK, VIRGINIA

THIS

IS

Dedication

Because of your interest in Suffolk High School, the classes, and the students as individuals . . .

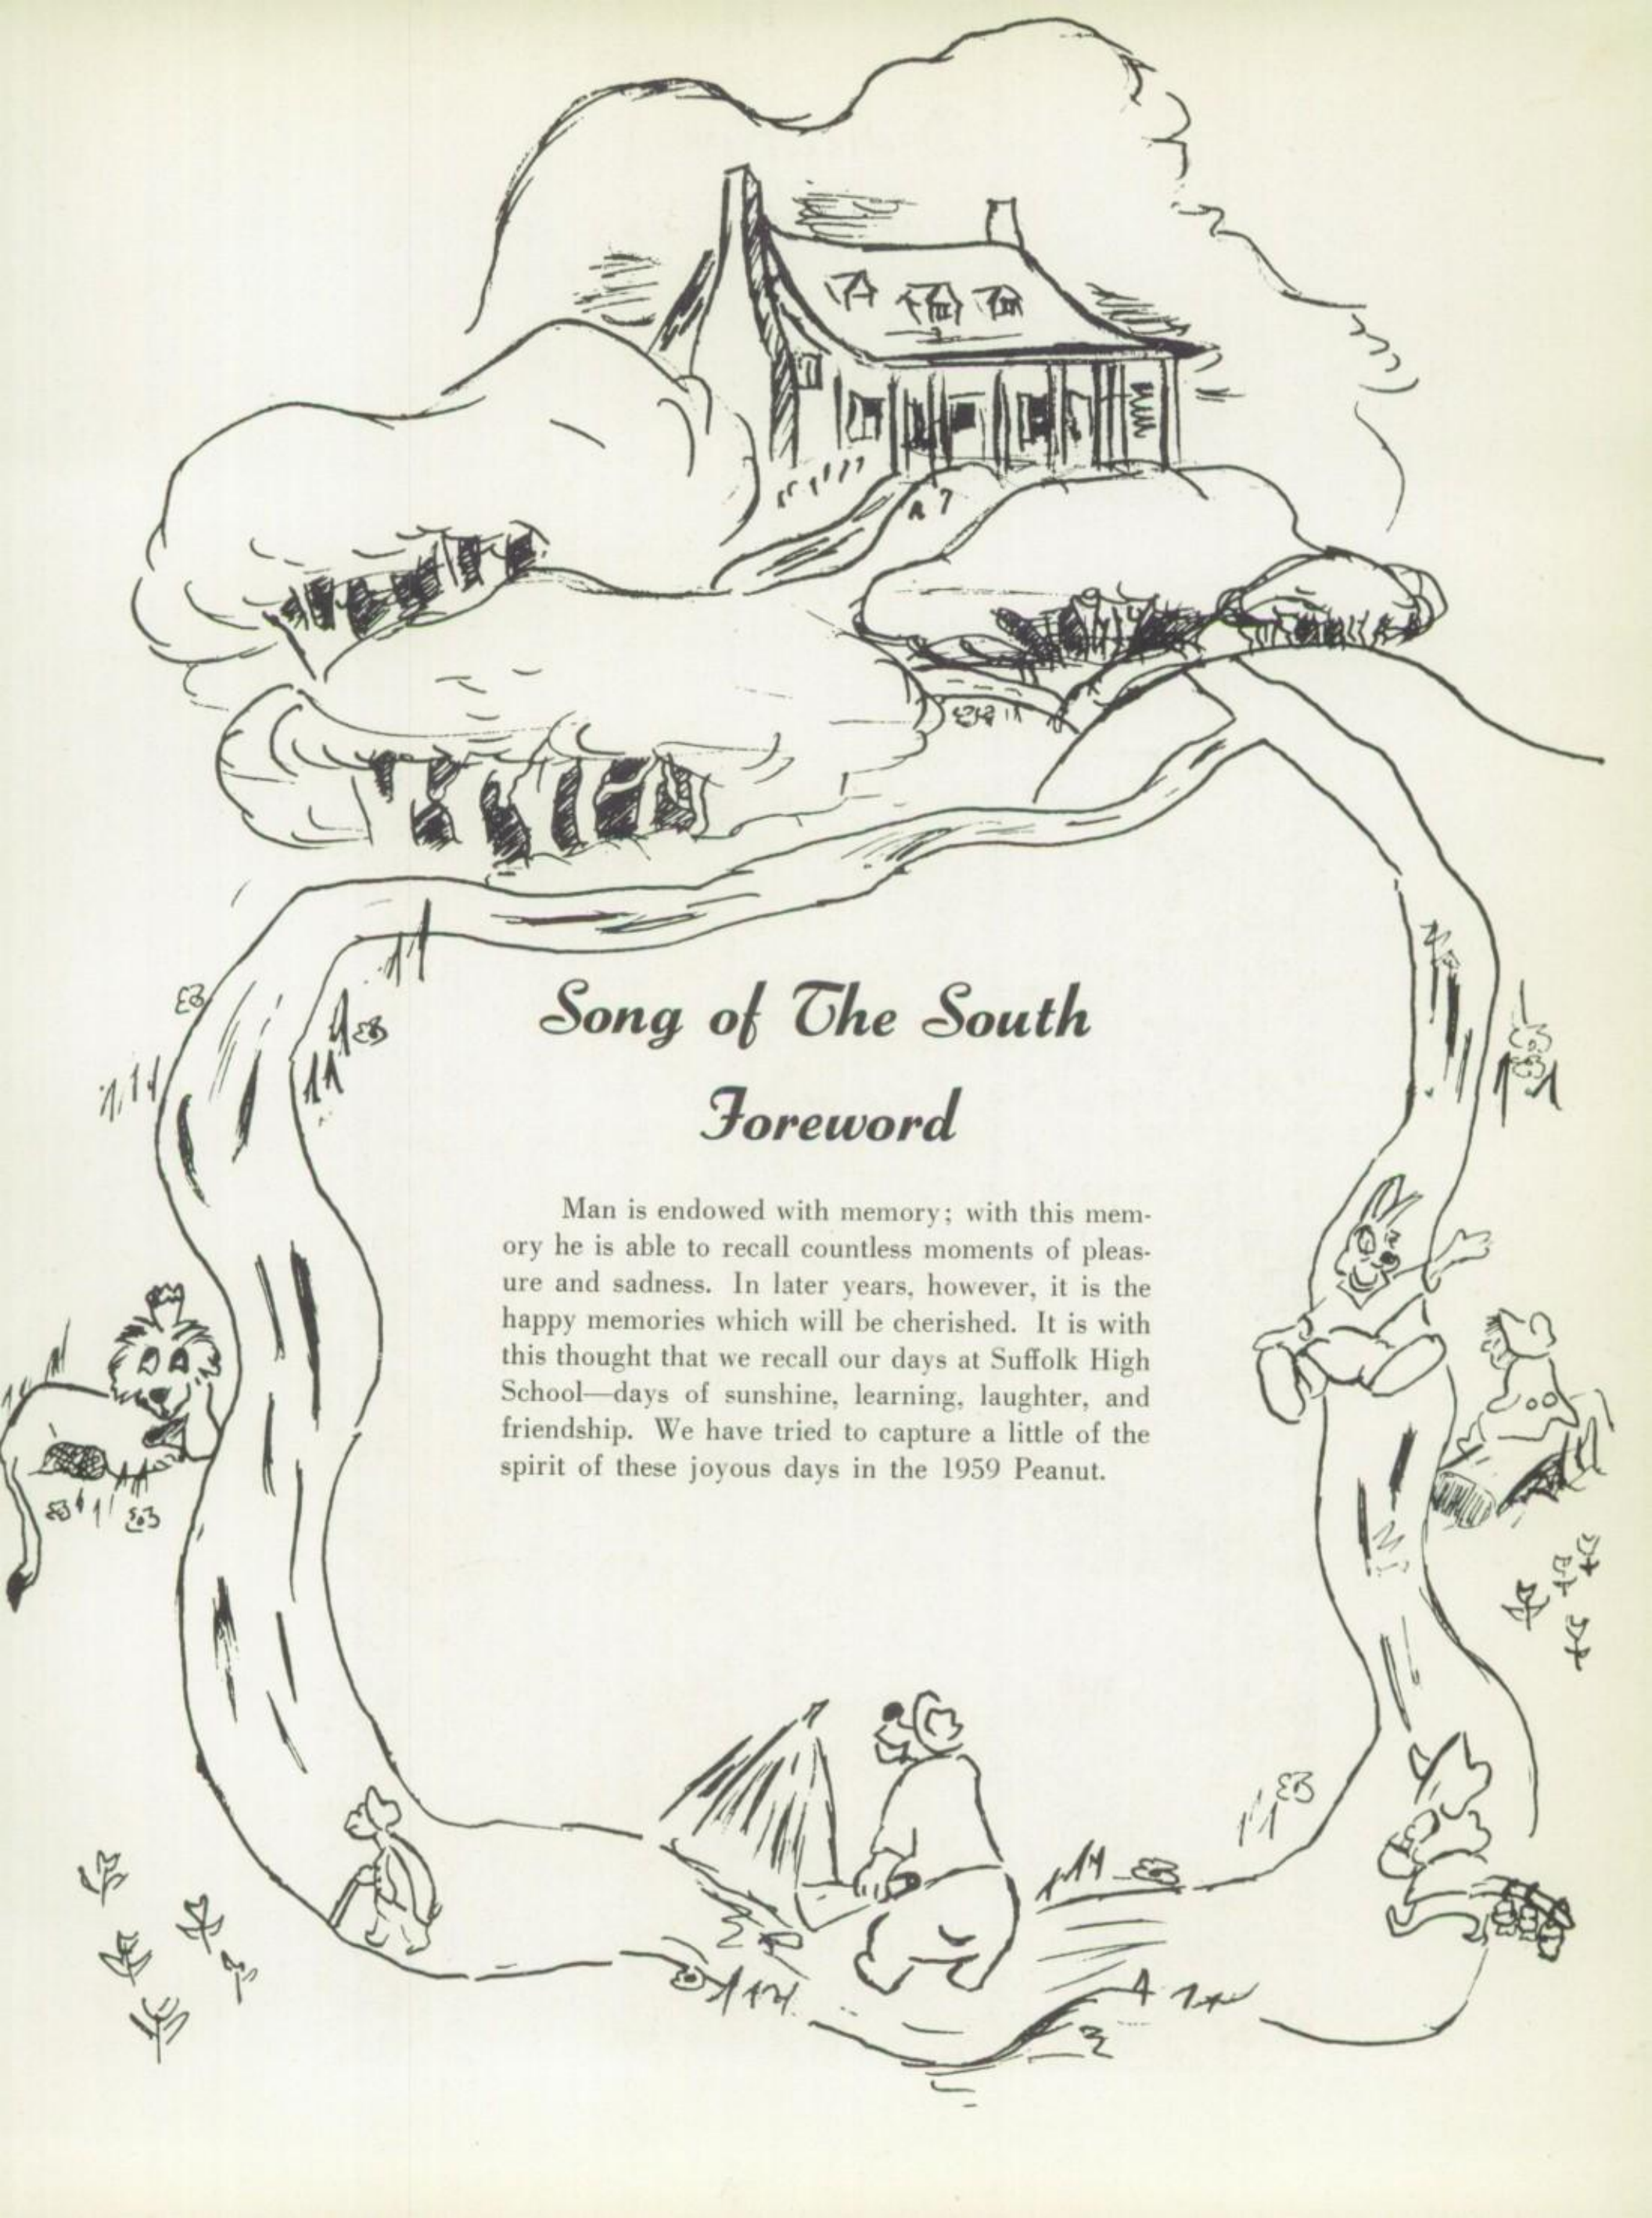

Because of your outstanding qualities of leadership. . .

Because of your thoughtful words, cheerful smile, and willingness to cooperate . . .

Because of your good sense of humor and friendly attitude toward the students . . .

We dedicate this, the 1959 Peanut, to you,
Mr. James M. Helmer

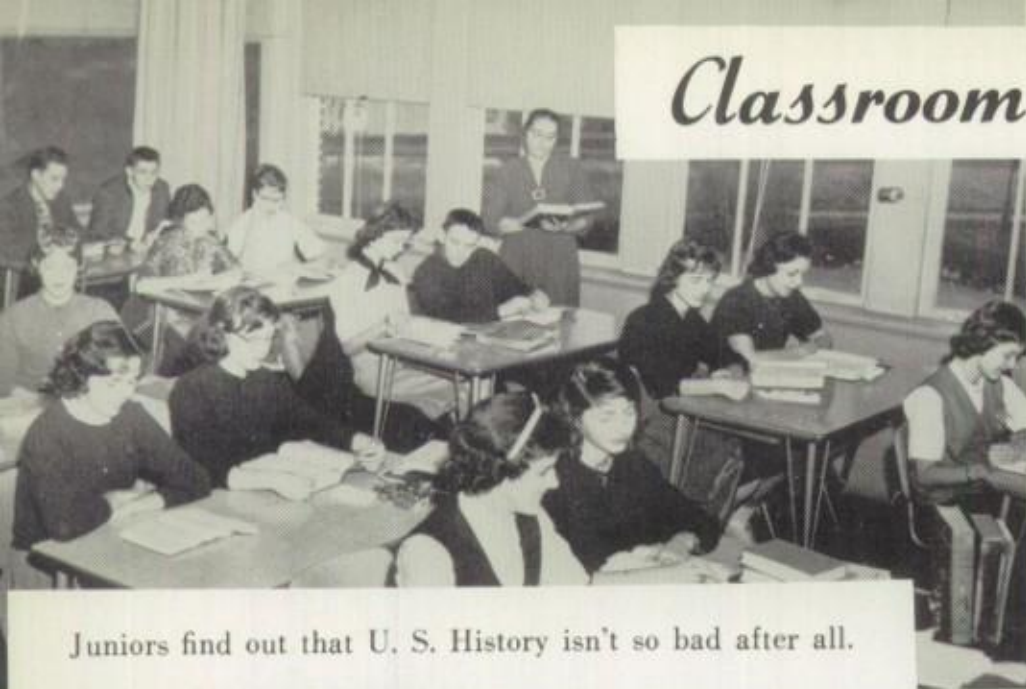

Song of The South

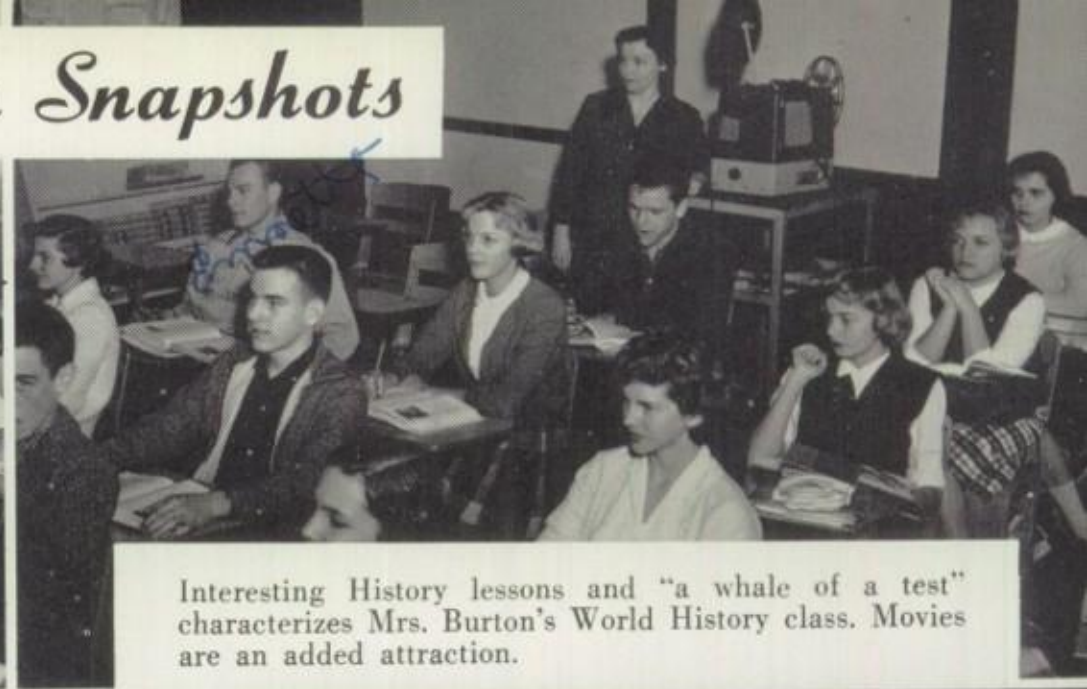

Foreword

Man is endowed with memory; with this memory he is able to recall countless moments of pleasure and sadness. In later years, however, it is the happy memories which will be cherished. It is with this thought that we recall our days at Suffolk High School—days of sunshine, learning, laughter, and friendship. We have tried to capture a little of the spirit of these joyous days in the 1959 Peanut.

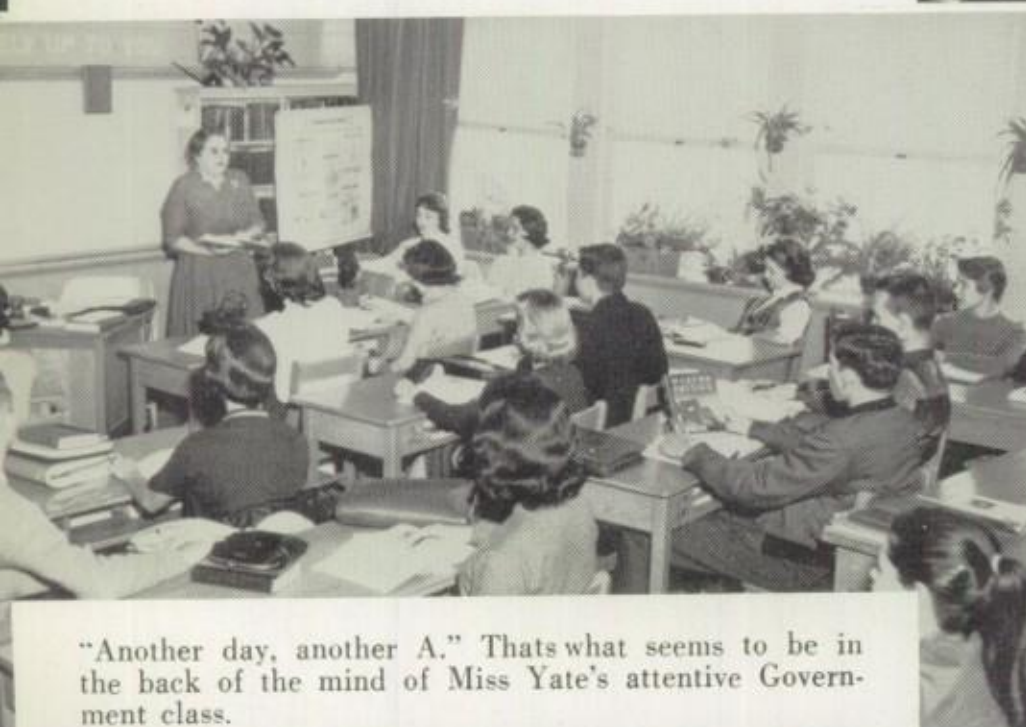

Classroom Snapshots

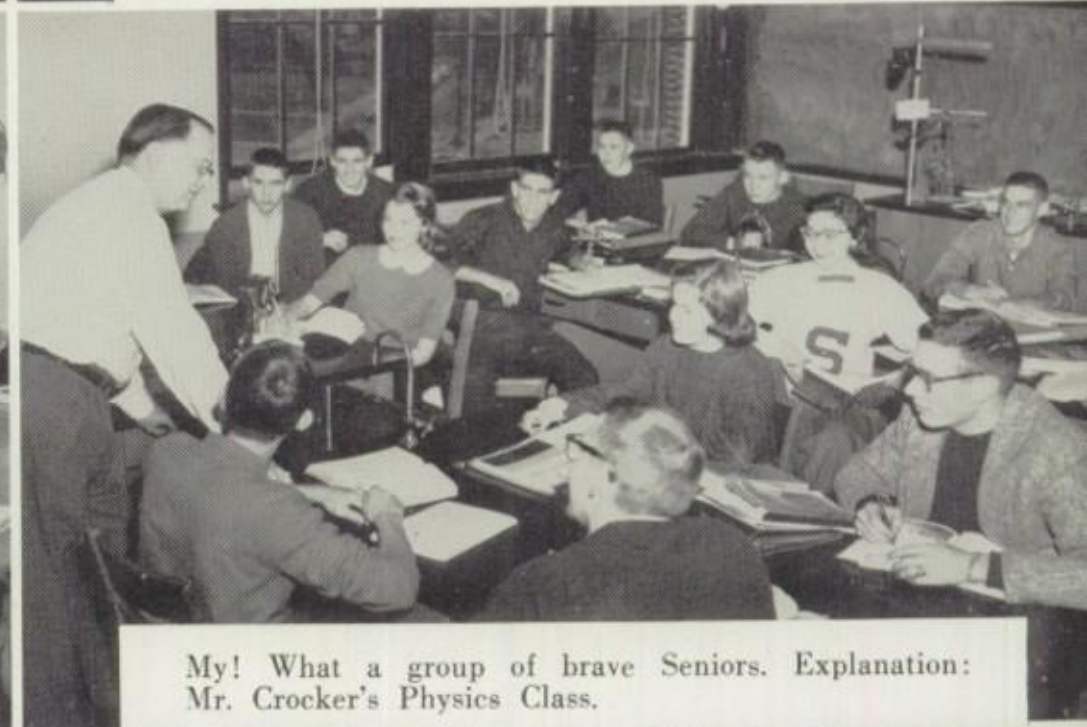

Juniors find out that U. S. History isn't so bad after all.

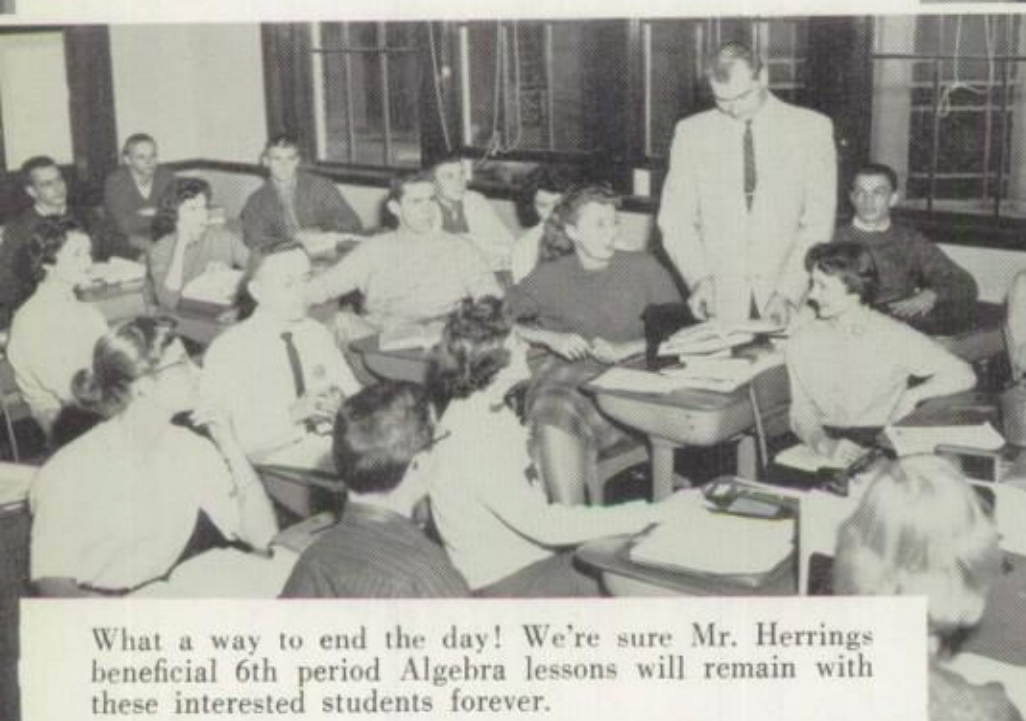

Interesting History lessons and "a whale of a test" characterizes Mrs. Burton's World History class. Movies are an added attraction.

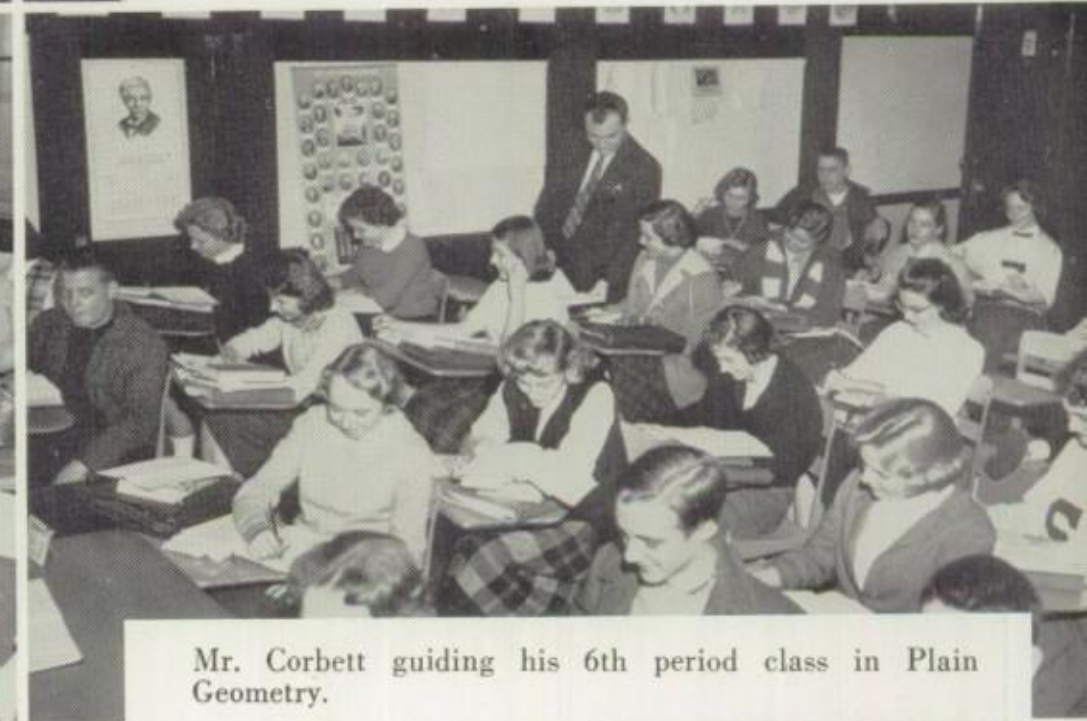

"Another day, another A." That's what seems to be in the back of the mind of Miss Yate's attentive Government class.

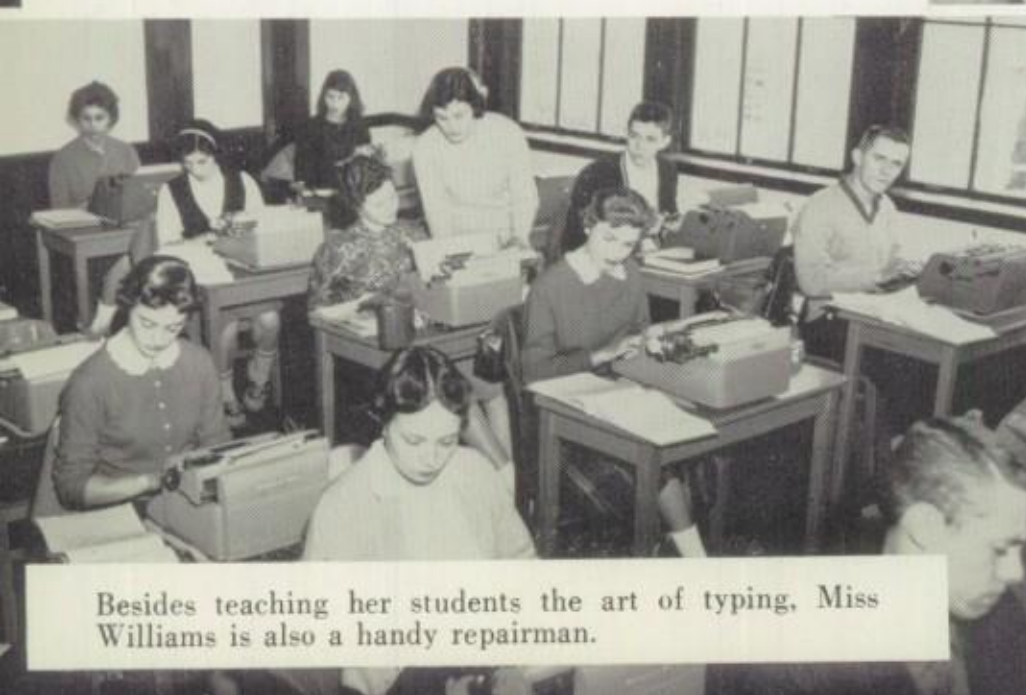

My! What a group of brave Seniors. Explanation: Mr. Crocker's Physics Class.

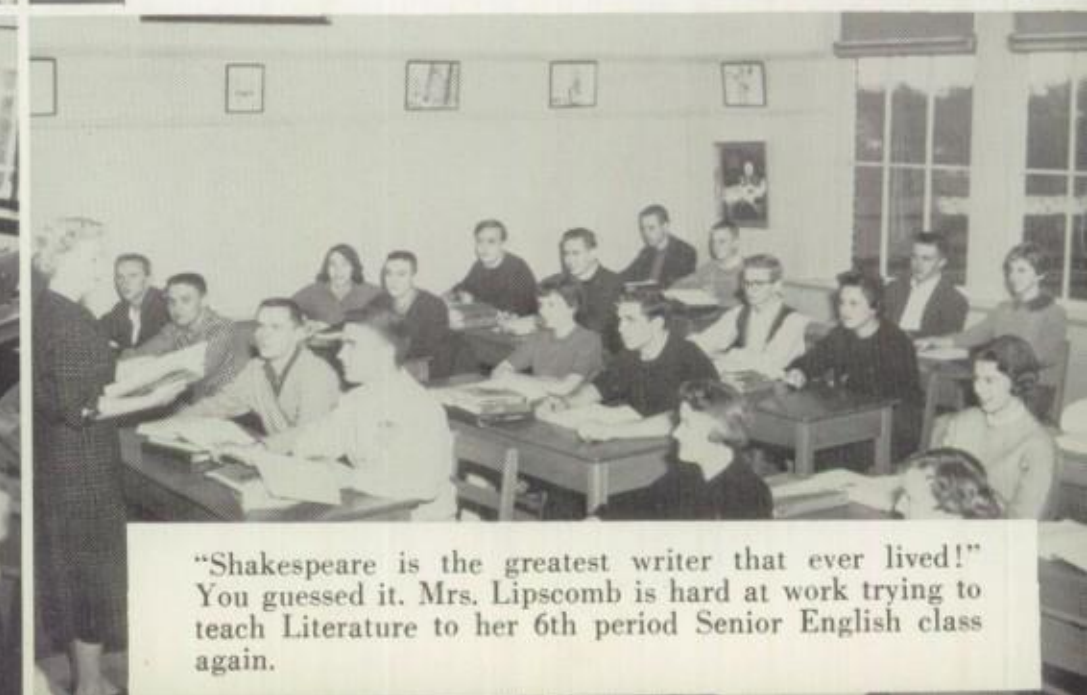

What a way to end the day! We're sure Mr. Herrings beneficial 6th period Algebra lessons will remain with these interested students forever.

Mr. Corbett guiding his 6th period class in Plain Geometry.

Besides teaching her students the art of typing, Miss Williams is also a handy repairman.

"Shakespeare is the greatest writer that ever lived!" You guessed it. Mrs. Lipscomb is hard at work trying to teach Literature to her 6th period Senior English class again.

"Pep" Assemblies

The Cheerleaders are always ready to add a little more "pep" to our school.

Here is our President, Alice White, presiding over an assembly.

Who would believe this! It is a skit given on "Clean Up Week".

"Everyone rise! The Seniors are marching in," is a familiar saying at the beginning of an assembly.

Activities

Student Senate

We, the People

President Alice White, Vice-President Tommy Benton, Secretary Becky Willoughby.

The officers of the Student Senate are Alice White, President, Tommy Benton, Vice-President, and Becky Willoughby, Secretary. The main project of the Senate has been to draw up, approve and put into effect a new honor system for the betterment of our school. The fine leadership of the Senate's officers, the cooperation of the homeroom representatives and the student body has made this a successful year.

Guidance and Audio Visual

In the Audio-Visual room we find Mrs. Burton and her workers, H. R. Gray, Berry Fitzhugh, and Itsy Biittner, hard at work checking in films for the week. This is a great service to our school.

Miss Bell, guidance director, is at all times helping students plan for the future. Here she is helping Susan and Sandra choose the college best suited each of them.

Interclub Council

13th Peanut Bowl

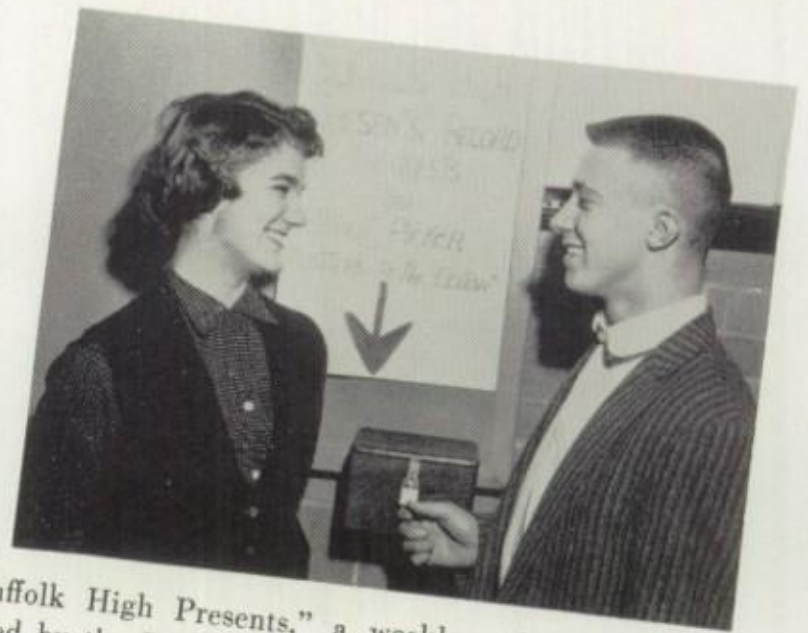

The highlight of this year's football season was the Peanut Bowl Game on November 21, 1958. Suffolk defeated Great Bridge 13-7 in one of the most exciting games of the year. Sandra LoCascio, the Peanut Bowl Queen, and her Princesses Betty Dare Tidewell and Becky Elmore were chosen by the Red Raiders. The crowning of the queen by Mr. M. J. English, President of the Rotary Club, climaxed this gala occasion.

Pride of S. H. S.

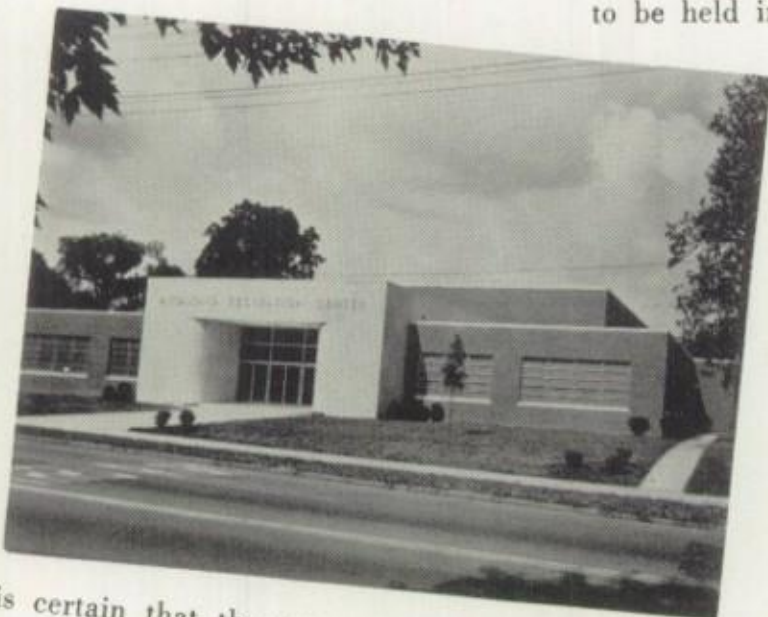

Girls' and Boys' State—Sandra LoCascio, Becky Elmore, Betty Dare Tidwell, Alice White, Taylor Everett, and Tommy Pettit.

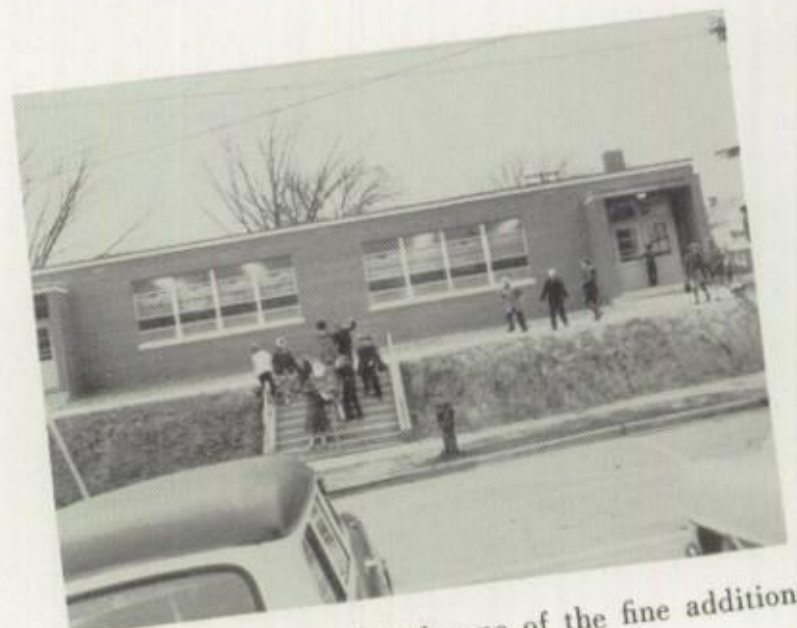

"Suffolk High Presents," a weekly radio program, sponsored by the P-Nut Picker every Monday night with D. J. Ralph White and assistant Gene Birdsong.

Sandra LoCascio, Peanut Bowl Queen, has also been chosen as a princess for the Azalea Festival to be held in Norfolk.

It is certain that the new gym has been enjoyed by all throughout the year.

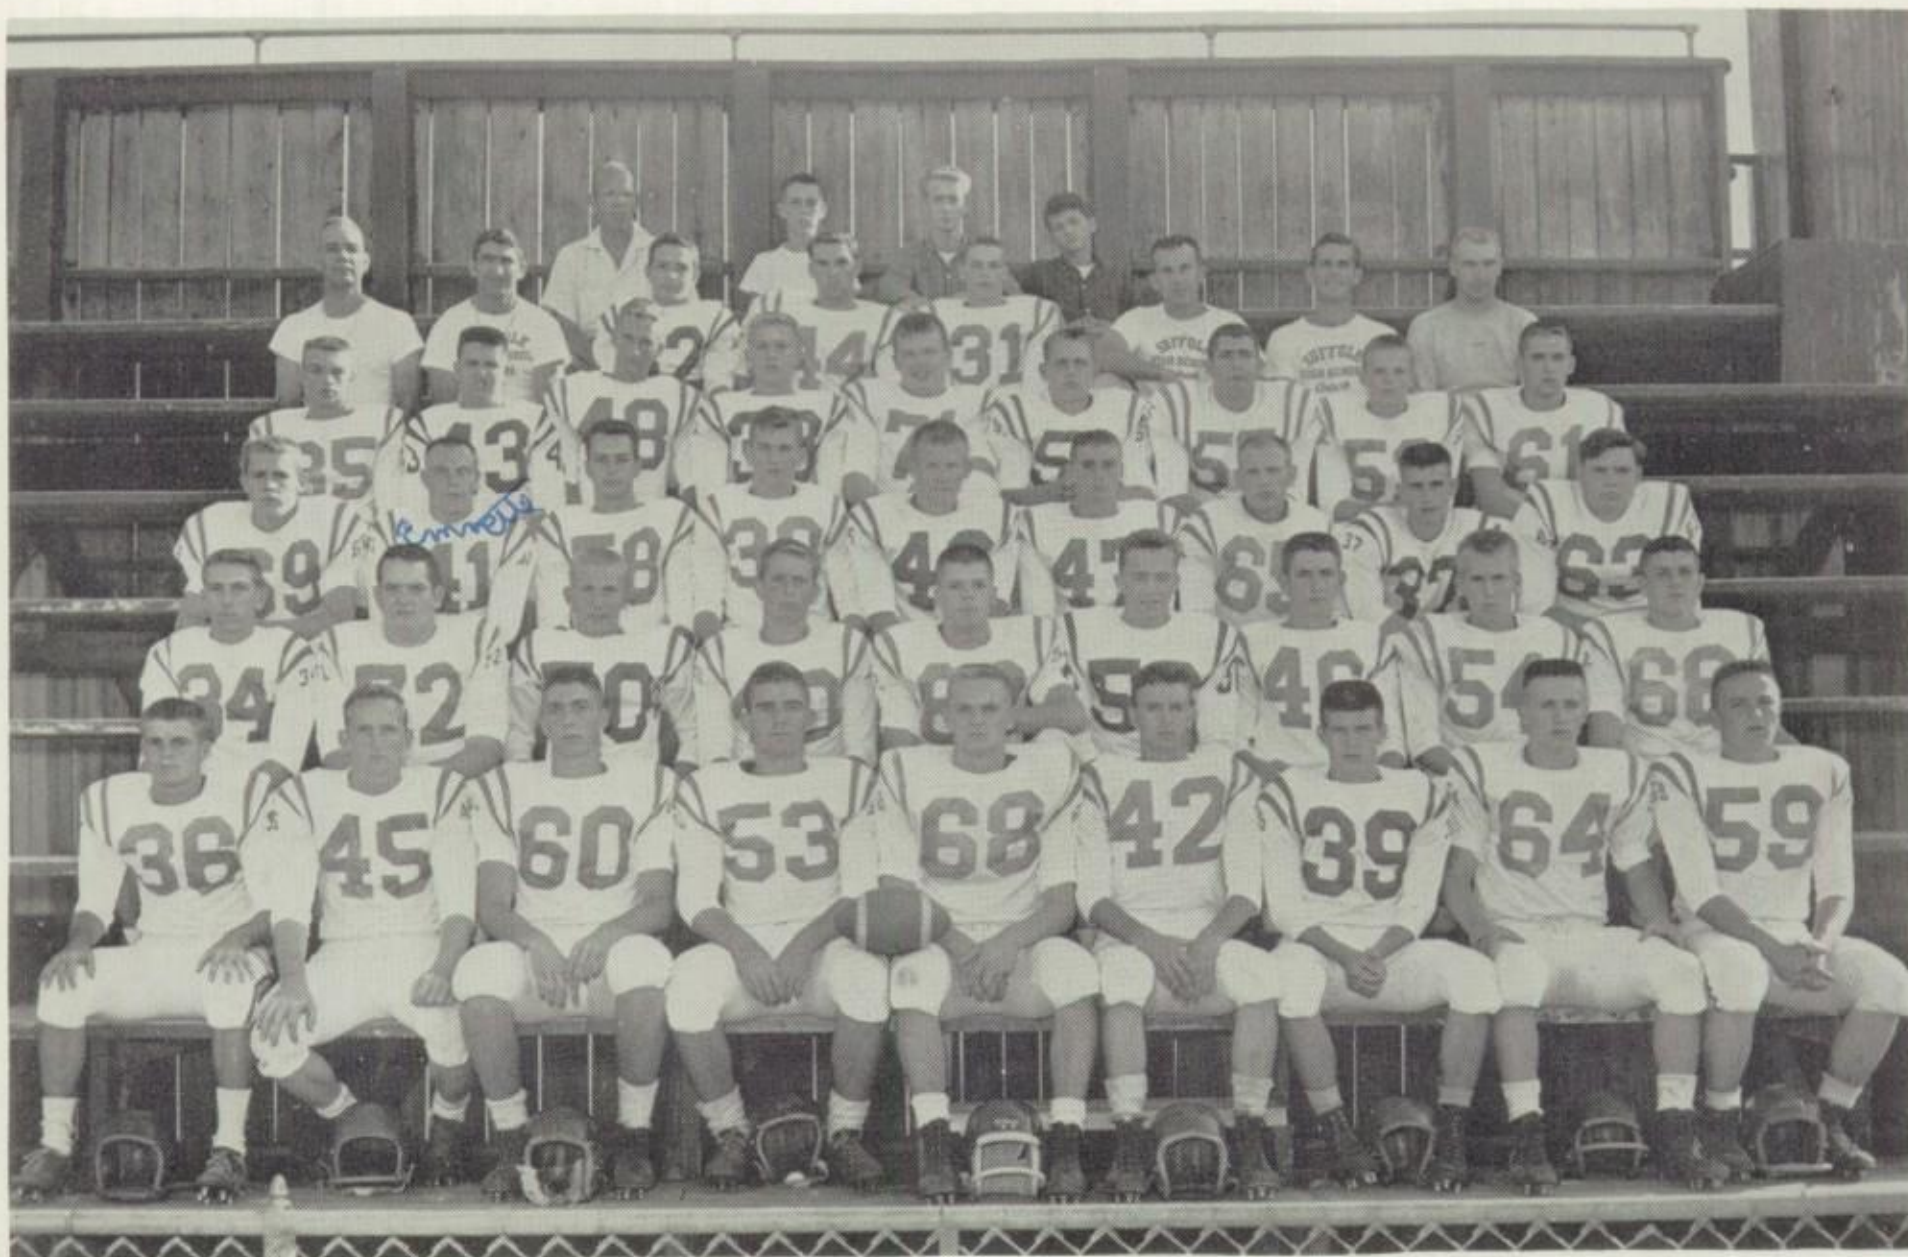

The new cafeteria is definitely one of the fine additions to S.H.S.

Thornton's

To the Senior Class of '59. . . The management and employees of THORNTON'S congratulate you on the completion of your studies as high school students. Schooldays are truly happy days—and it is with the sincere wish of all of us, that you carry fond memories of your years at S.H.S. with you. May the instruction and leadership of your teachers these past years, guide you to success and fulfillment of your ambition in the years to come.

It is our hope that you set your goals high and through the guidance of a true Christian life, that each of you, in his own way, attains that goal.

Compliments

To The

Class of 1959

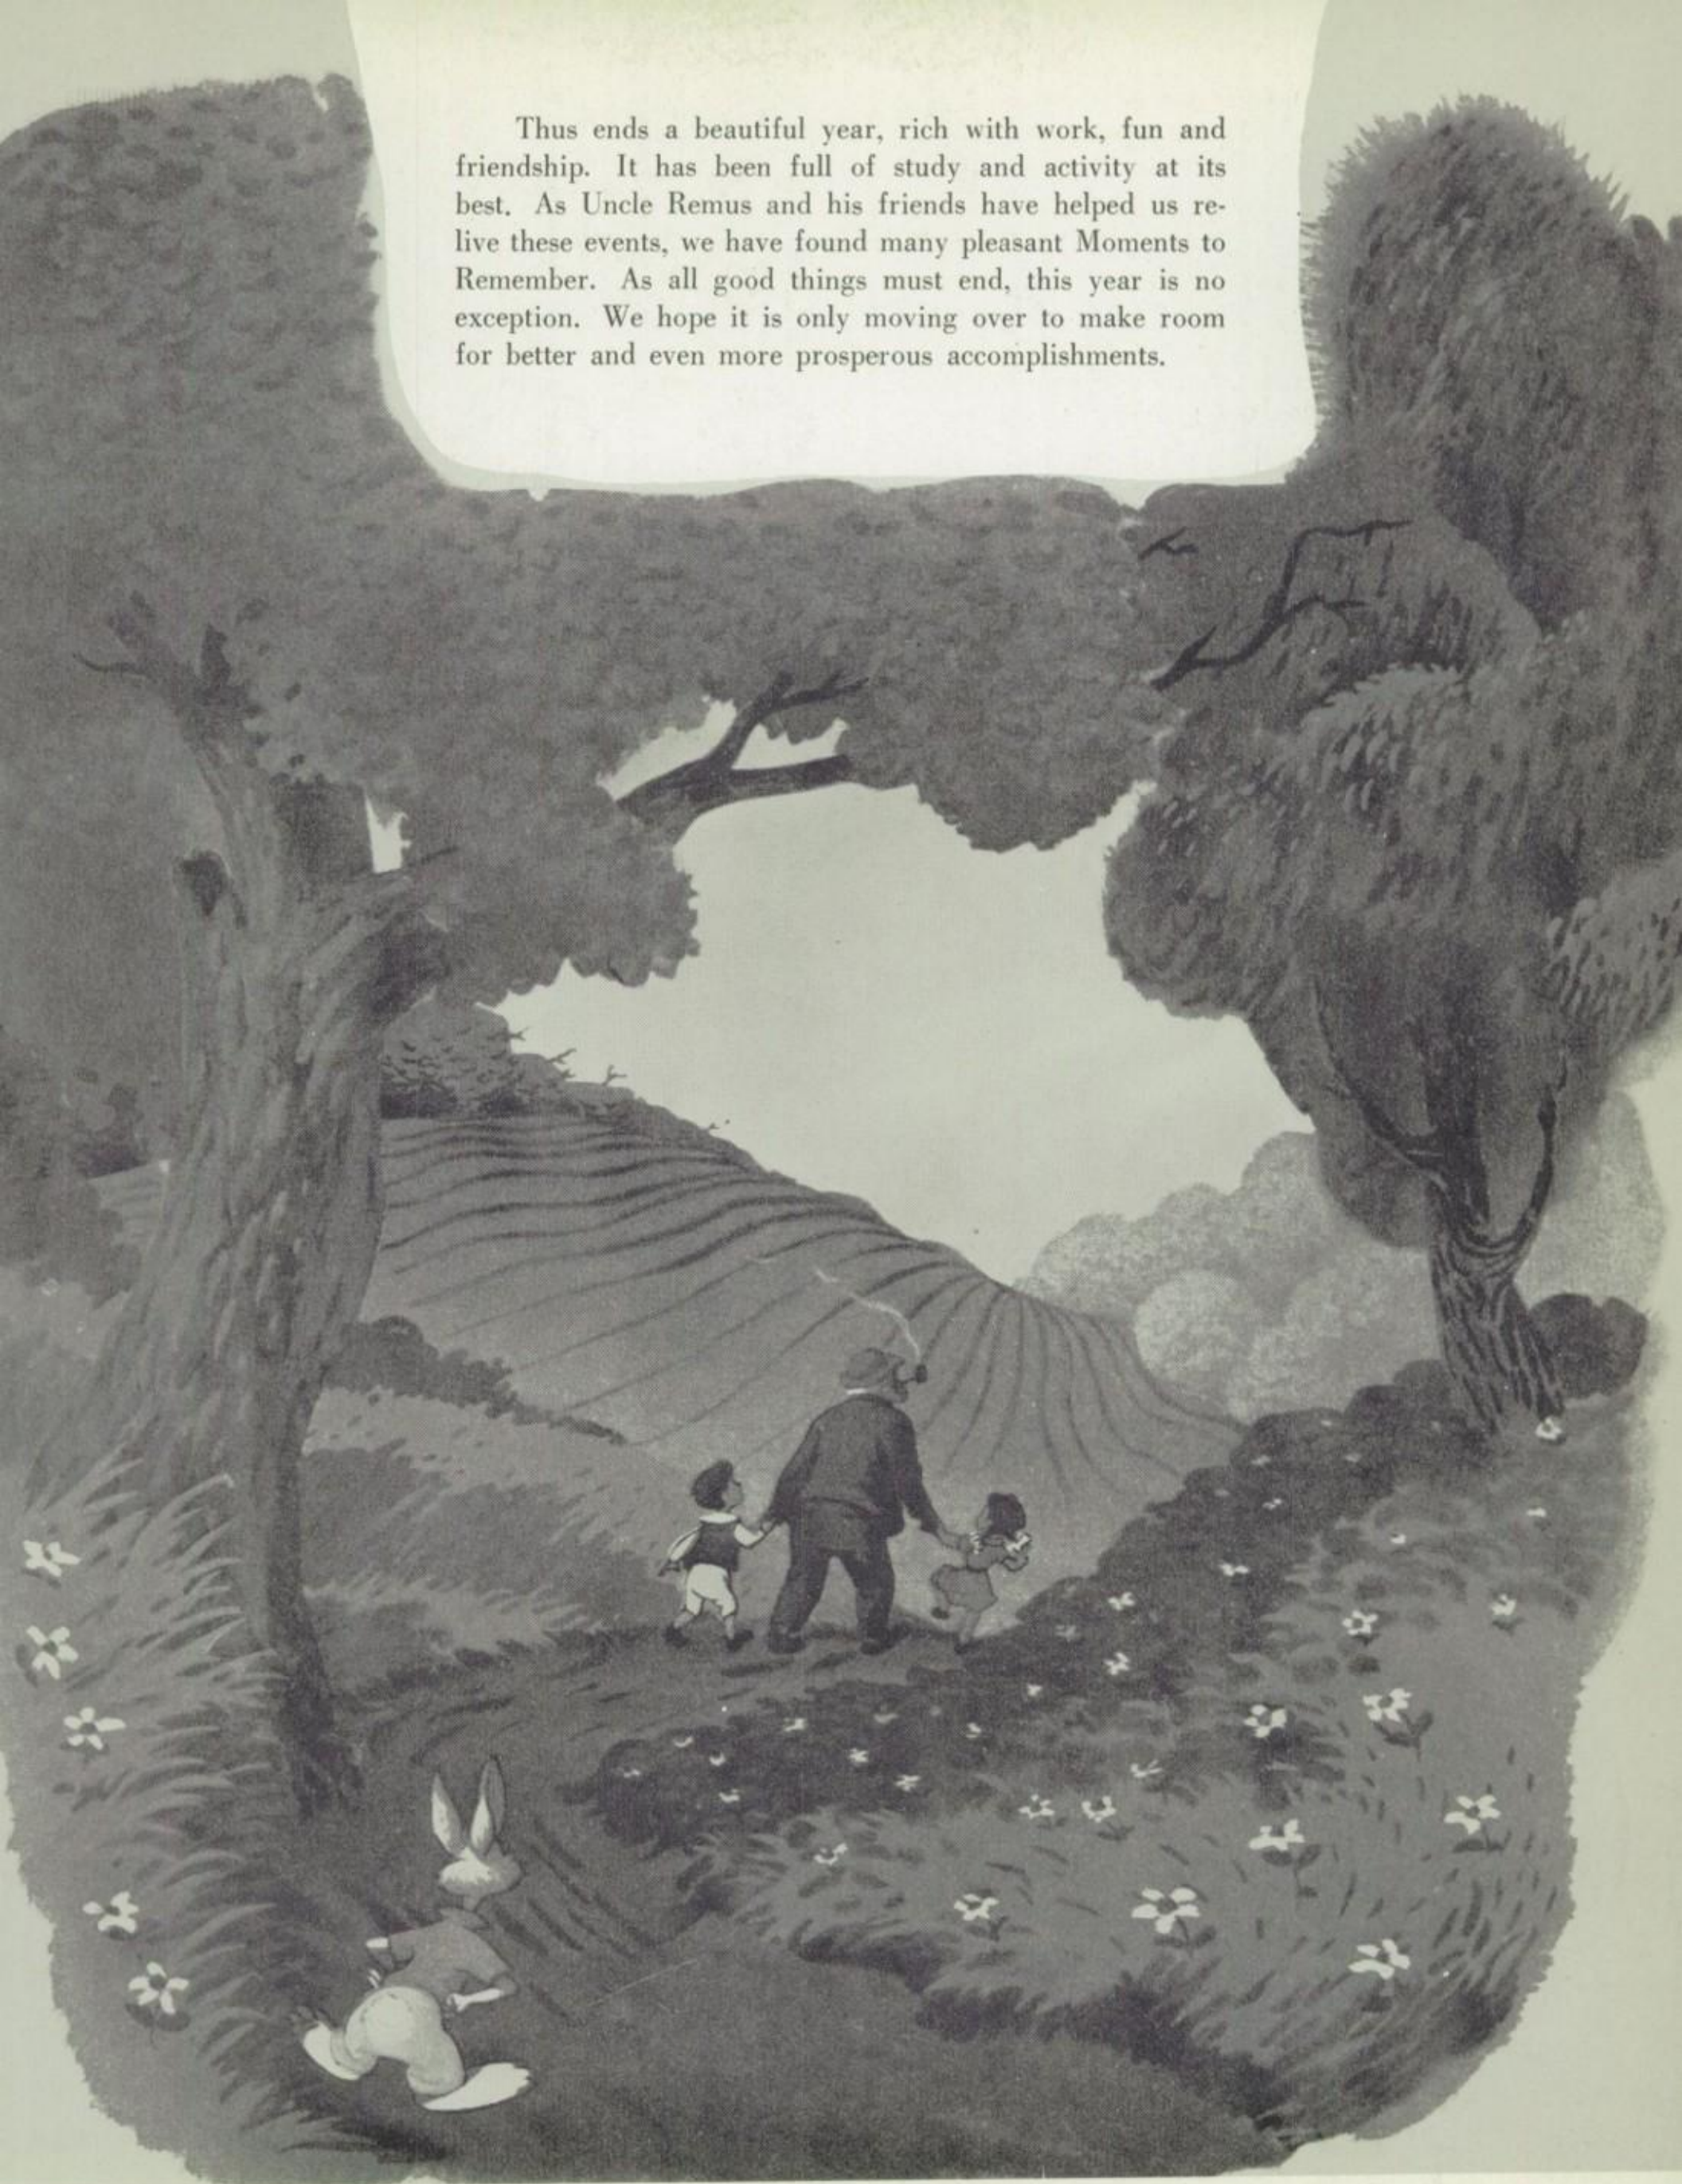

THE HUB

Yes, that's our Bill delivering flowers for PINNER'S. When we at S.H.S. need flowers we always go to

PINNER'S FLOWER SHOP

Thus ends a beautiful year, rich with work, fun and friendship. It has been full of study and activity at its best. As Uncle Remus and his friends have helped us relive these events, we have found many pleasant Moments to Remember. As all good things must end, this year is no exception. We hope it is only moving over to make room for better and even more prosperous accomplishments.
